HIBBERT TO BEGIN CHASE TO SNOXCROSS CHAMPIONSHIP AT AMOIL DULUTH NATIONAL

Nov. 22, 2010 – Monster Energy/Arctic Cat's Tucker Hibbert will begin his chase to win the AMOIL Championship Snocross Series (ACSS) National Pro Championships this weekend at the AMOIL Duluth National. This year marks Hibbert's eighth appearance at the event and the 19th time snocross has invaded the top of Spirit Mountain ski hill in Duluth, Minn. After sweeping the pro classes the past two years, he's entering the event as the heavy favorite.

The Duluth National is the first of eight events held across the United States that will determine the 2010/2011 Pro Super Stock and Pro Open National Points Champions. This winter is the first time Hibbert has raced a full schedule and chased the championships since the 2002/2003 season.

Pro racing action begins Saturday at 3 p.m. and continues through Sunday afternoon. If you can't make it to Duluth, mark your calendar to watch the one-hour VERSUS broadcast Sunday, Dec. 19 at 3 p.m. EST.

Tucker Hibbert - #68 Monster Energy/Arctic Cat

"I'm excited to get back to the racetrack and start my season. This year is different with chasing the championships but I'm not changing the way I approach each race. I've continued to prepare myself and my team the best way I know how. The only way to line up for a race ready to win is knowing that I've done everything I can to be 100% prepared.

Duluth is one of the top events of the winter. There is always a huge turn out of fans fired up for the season to start. On the track and in the pits, emotions run high. It's your chance to prove that you've done your homework and all of the manufacturers want to show that their equipment is the best. Performing well at Duluth is crucial because it sets the tone for the rest of the season."
